Allied Planes Blast Border To Block Red War Traffic

Seoul, Nov. 8 (AP)—Six hundred allied warplanes blasted North Korea all along the Manchurian border today to block off Red reinforcements from Communist China.

But air observers reported "very heavy traffic" rolling across Manchuria toward the Yalu river boundary. They also spotted an estimated 700 vehicles already south of the river in North Korea.

As the U.N. air arm mounted one of the largest raids of the Korean war, reinforcements arrived on the Korean east coast. Elements of the U.S. Third Infantry Division landed at the port of Wonsan.

On the ground U.N. troops pushed forward on all fronts. The unexplained Communist withdrawal continued.

Order News Blackout

Intelligence officers at General MacArthur's Tokyo headquarters clamped a surprise news blackout on developments between Communist battle lines and the Manchurian border. They said the clamping would be temporary.

They declined to answer questions about the Reds' ultimate intentions—whether the Communists presumably were planning an attack, trying to consolidate present lines or preparing a series of delaying actions.

In an historic sidelight to the air war, jets met jets in a fight to the death for the first time. The battle occurred over the North Korean border city of Sinuiju, a key target for the 600-plane assault.

An American F-80 Shooting Star jet shot down a Russian-made Mig-15 jet fighter while the planes sped at better than 600 miles an hour. Another Red jet was damaged but escaped to Manchuria.

Pilots said the Red jet tried to lure them across the border over Manchuria—a new tactic. U.N. planes have been ordered to stay clear of Chinese Communist air.

In the big raid 80 U.S. B-29 superforts dumped 640 tons of bombs on Sinuiju, concentration point for Chinese Red supplies and site of an airfield used by jets in attacks on U.S. aircraft.

B-29 light bombers, fighter-bombers and fighters took part in the massive assault against cities, towns, villages, bridges and troop concentrations along the Korean side of the border almost to Soviet Siberia.

A U.S. air force spokesman said Sinuiju, a city of 100,000, was "pretty well taken care of" by 85,000 incendiary bombs.

Nine of the B-27s carried 80 demolition bombs—1,000 pounds—which were dropped on twin bridges spanning the Yalu between Manchuria and Korea at Sinuiju.

Historical Society Objects To Removal Of Center Plot In Historic Lincoln Square

One of the first answers to the borough council's surprise action to remove the center plot from Lincoln Square came Tuesday evening from the Adams County Historical Society.

With but a single dissenting vote the more than 150 present at the session held in the court house voted to petition the council to "let Lincoln Square remain as it is."

Harry T. Stauffer, treasurer of the historical society, made the original motion and there was a chorus of seconds.

Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler, president of the Women's Civic Council, told the historical society that "a large number of women's organizations of the borough have already expressed their opinion on the subject. The great majority of those organizations are opposed to doing away with the center plot of Lincoln Square." Mrs. Buehler spoke during the general discussion on Mr. Stauffer's motion.

A number of accessions were reported at the meeting, including a receipt from the Penns to Alexander Coburn for land in the Manor of the Masque; a book of the genealogy of the Fulton family presented by Mrs. Victor W. S. Duttera; three American flags, two of them containing 35 stars arranged in circles, donated by John Kendelehart and an 1872 sewing machine donated by Harry Stauffer.

The historical society now has 170 members, it was reported at the business meeting held in the society rooms in the basement of the court house. Following the business meeting the group moved to the main court room.

There, motion pictures taken during the recent Sesquicentennial were shown. A recording of the Mutual broadcast made of the November 19 program here in 1948 was played.

Republicans Sweep Adams County; Lind Retains Seat In Congress; Pitzer Wins; Duff And Fine Elected By Heavy Margins

Philadelphia, Nov. 8 (AP)—With only nine districts missing in the 8,356 voting precincts in the state, Duff had 1,821,402 and Myers, 1,695,588; Fine, 1,795,883, and Dilworth, 1,709,095.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8 (AP)—James H. Duff won election to the U. S. Senate today, gaining added stature as a Republican Presidential possibility in 1952.

"Big Red," Pennsylvania's governor for the last four years, trounced the U. S. Senate's Number two Democrat, Francis J. Myers, by 125,000 votes in near record balloting that swept Duff's hand-picked mate for governor, John S. Fine, into office.

Backslapping, handshaking Duff supporters cheered the governor as he walked into GOP headquarters at Harrisburg shortly before 3 a.m.

"How are you, Mr. President?" some shouted.

GOP Slate Wins
"Not yet," cautioned the 67-year-old Duff. He would say no more when quizzed about any Presidential aspirations. The Democrats had maintained that Duff intended using a Senate seat as a springboard for a campaign for the Presidential nomination in 1952.

It was a clean sweep for the Republicans in this important state, long considered a GOP stronghold. In addition to electing Duff and Fine, the nearly 3,500,000 voters who cast ballots selected: (a) GOP candidates for lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs and for judgeships on the State Supreme and Superior courts; (b) a Republican majority in both State Houses, and (c) two additional Republicans for the U. S. House, upping the GOP strength from 18 to 20.

Fine Next Governor
The two beaten incumbent Democrats are Anthony Calvacante of Uniontown, representing 11th 23rd district, and Harry Davenport, of Pittsburgh, 20th district. The 81st Congress listed 18 Republicans and 15 Democrats from this state. Now there are only 13 Democrats.

Fine, 57, succeeded Duff as Governor by defeating Richardson Dilworth, Philadelphia city treasurer, by 83,000 votes in the climax of one of the most bitterly waged gubernatorial contests in state history. Pennsylvania has picked only one (Continued on Page 5)

Heavy York County Vote Beats Worley

Adams county Republicans made a clean sweep in Tuesday's election but the margin given Francis Worley in the Congressional race was not enough to offset a heavy lead in York county that carried Congressman James F. Lind into office for his second consecutive term.

The Republican state ticket came through Tuesday's voting in Adams county with leads of slightly over 1,900.

Congressman Lind lost this county by 1,560 and was 2,912 votes behind Worley in Franklin county. His York county margin of 8,498 however, gave Lind a lead of 4,026 over Worley in the three-county district.

H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, was elected to succeed Worley if the lower house at Harrisburg. Pitzer defeated his Democratic opponent, Jay W. Bringman, Gettysburg, by a margin of 1,406 in the unofficial tabulation. The totals were Pitzer 7,056 and Bringman, 5,650.

A total of 13,094 of Adams county's 18,589 eligible voters went to the polls on Tuesday. The votes cast represented just over 70 per cent of the registration.

Duff Heads Ticket
Governor James H. Duff carried 29 voting districts in the county over U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers. The totals were 7,322 for Duff and Myers, 5,422.

The figures for the race for the governorship were very nearly the same. John S. Fine also put 29 districts in this county in his column as he garnered 7,380 votes against 5,440 for Dilworth.

Francis Worley trailed the state ticket in this county by more than 100, carrying 29 districts and tying Lind in Germany township. Worley's margin in Adams county was only 1,560 as compared with the 1,900 edge given the state ticket here.

Pitzer Succeeds Worley
H. Earl Pitzer was high man in the legislative race in 26 districts and tied Bringman in the second district of Huntingdon township. Pitzer won by 1,406 votes and will take the seat filled by Worley in the General Assembly for the last eight years. Pitzer carried all of the Gettysburg districts, although Bringman ran well ahead of the state Democratic ticket in Gettysburg.

Bringman was high man for the Democrats in this county. He topped Lind's figure by 10 votes and led the state Democratic candidates in the county by a margin of more than 200.

High man in the county for the Republicans was John C. Bell, successful candidate for state Supreme court, who garnered 7,533 votes.

Congressional Vote
Complete unofficial figures on the congressional vote in the three-county district follow:

	Worley	Lind
Adams	7,200	5,640
Franklin	10,924	8,012
York	26,406	24,904
Totals	44,530	48,556
Lind's majority		4,026

Tabulation of the official count of Tuesday's election will start at noon Friday at the court house.

CHEST DRIVE $7,000 SHORT

The Gettysburg community chest still has about $7,000 to go to reach its goal of $22,000, according to reports presented at a meeting of the board of directors of the organization Tuesday evening at the fire engine house.

With approximately $15,000 collected so far in cash and pledges, the campaign is scheduled for a concentrated drive to complete the solicitation with the selection of a "flying squadron" today to visit those who have not yet been contacted.

Several hundred solicitation cards have no notation of whether or not the persons listed have been contacted, the director learned.

To aid the "flying squadron" in its work, residents who have not been contacted are asked to call the drive chairman, William G. Weaver; Chest President Glenn Guise, or any member of the board.

A complete list of members of the "flying squadron" is scheduled to be published Thursday.

Historical Society Objects To Removal Of Center Plot In Historic Lincoln Square

One of the first answers to the borough council's surprise action to remove the center plot from Lincoln Square came Tuesday evening from the Adams County Historical Society.

With but a single dissenting vote the more than 150 present at the session held in the court house voted to petition the council to "let Lincoln Square remain as it is."

Harry T. Stauffer, treasurer of the historical society, made the original motion and there was a chorus of seconds.

Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler, president of the Women's Civic Council, told the historical society that "a large number of women's organizations of the borough have already expressed their opinion on the subject. The great majority of those organizations are opposed to doing away with the center plot of Lincoln Square." Mrs. Buehler spoke during the general discussion on Mr. Stauffer's motion.

A number of accessions were reported at the meeting, including a receipt from the Penna to Alexander Coburn for land in the Manor of the Masque; a book of the genealogy of the Fulton family presented by Mrs. Victor W. S. Dutta; three American flags, two of them containing 35 stars arranged in circles, donated by John Kendeheart and an 1872 sewing machine donated by Harry Stauffer.

The historical society now has 170 members, it was reported at the business meeting held in the society rooms in the basement of the court house. Following the business meeting the group moved to the main court room.

There, motion pictures taken during the recent Sesqui-centennial were shown. A recording of the Mutual broadcast made of the November 19 program here in 1948 was played.

RED CROSS TO SEND PACKAGES TO SERVICEMEN

The new element in the election night picture here was the broadcast by WGCT of county vote returns from the court house as rapidly as the election boards brought their reports to the commissioners' office. State and national election news was put on the air from the station's studios. The news broadcasts were continued until 3:20 a.m.

First district to report Tuesday night was Highland township, where 132 votes were cast. The Highland election board reached the court house at 9:25 p.m. One member of the board said that two clerks with office training and experience helped speed the count.

Fairfield was the second board to report and Mt. Pleasant township's No. 1 district was next. District No. 2 from that township followed in a few minutes.

One-third of the county's 42 districts were in by 10:30 o'clock Tuesday night and at 11 o'clock there were complete figures from 23 districts. Gettysburg first ward, first precinct was the first town board to complete its work. It finished two hours after the polls closed. By midnight only Franklin, New Oxford and Gettysburg's second ward were unreported. The returns were complete by 12:10 a.m.

MISSION GROUP HOLDS MEETING

Republicans Sweep Adams County; Lind Retains Seat In Congress; Pitzer Wins; Duff And Fine Elected By Heavy Margins

Republicans Carry Entire State Ticket

Philadelphia, Nov. 8 (AP)—With only nine districts missing in the 8,356 voting precincts in the state, Duff had 1,821,462 and Myers, 1,695,588; Fine, 1,795,583, and Dilworth, 1,709,095.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8 (AP)—James H. Duff won election to the U. S. Senate today, gaining added stature as a Republican Presidential possibility in 1952.

"Big Red," Pennsylvania's governor for the last four years, trounced the U. S. Senate's Number two Democrat, Francis J. Myers, by 125,000 votes in near record balloting that swept Duff's hand-picked mate for governor, John S. Fine, into office.

Backslapping, handshaking Duff supporters cheered the governor as he walked into GOP headquarters at Harrisburg shortly before 3 a.m.

"How are you, Mr. President?" some shouted.

GOP State Wins

"Not yet," cautioned the 67-year-old Duff. He would say no more when quizzed about any Presidential aspirations. The Democrats had maintained that Duff intended using a Senate seat as a springboard for a campaign for the Presidential nomination in 1952.

It was a clean sweep for the Republicans in this important state, long considered a GOP stronghold.

In addition to electing Duff and Fine, the nearly 3,500,000 voters who cast ballots selected: (a) GOP candidates for lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs and for judgeships on the State Supreme and Superior courts; (b) a Republican majority in both State Houses, and (c) two additional Republicans for the U. S. House, upping the GOP strength from 18 to 20.

Fine Next Governor

The two beaten incumbent Democrats are Anthony Calvacante of Uniontown, representing the 23rd Congress listed 18 Republicans and 15 Democrats from this state. Now there are only 13 Democrats.

Fine, 57, succeeded Duff as Governor by defeating Richardson Dilworth, Philadelphia city treasurer, by 63,000 votes in the climax of one of the most bitterly waged gubernatorial contests in state history. Pennsylvania has picked only one

Heavy York County Vote Beats Worley

Adams county Republicans made a clean sweep in Tuesday's election on the margin given Francis Worley in the Congressional race was not enough to offset a heavy lead in York county that carried Congressman James F. Lind into office for his second consecutive term.

The Republican state ticket came through Tuesday's voting in Adams county with leads of slightly over 1,900.

Congressman Lind lost this county by 1,560 and was 2,912 votes behind Worley in Franklin county. His York county margin of 8,498 however, gave Lind a lead of 4,026 over Worley in the three-county district.

H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, was elected to succeed Worley if the lower house at Harrisburg. Pitzer defeated his Democratic opponent, Jay W. Bringham, Gettysburg, by a margin of 1,406 in the unofficial tabulation. The totals were Pitzer 7,056 and Bringham, 5,650.

A total of 13,094 of Adams county's 18,589 eligible voters went to the polls on Tuesday. The votes cast represented just over 70 per cent of the registration.

Duff Heads Ticket

Governor James H. Duff carried 29 voting districts in the county over U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers. The totals were 7,322 for Duff and Myers, 5,422.

The figures for the race for the governorship were very nearly the same. John S. Fine also put 29 districts in this county in his column as he garnered 7,380 votes against 5,440 for Dilworth.

Francis Worley trailed the state ticket in this county by more than 100, carrying 29 districts and tying Lind in Germany township. Worley's margin in Adams county was only 1,560 as compared with the 1,900 edge given the state ticket here.

Pitzer Succeeds Worley
H. Earl Pitzer was high man in the legislative race in 26 districts and tied Bringham in the second district of Huntingdon township. Pitzer won by 1,406 votes and will take the seat filled by Worley in the General Assembly for the last eight years. Pitzer carried all of the Gettysburg districts, although Bringham ran well ahead of the state Democratic ticket in Gettysburg.

Bringham was high man for the Democrats in this county. He topped Lind's figure by 10 votes and led the state Democratic candidates in the county by a margin of more than 200.

High man in the county for the Republicans was John C. Bell, successful candidate for state Supreme court, who garnered 7,533 votes.

Congressional Vote

Complete unofficial figures on the congressional vote in the three-county district follow:

	Worley	Lind
Adams	7,200	5,640
Franklin	10,924	8,012
York	26,406	34,904
Totals	44,530	48,556

Lind's majority 4,026

Tabulation of the official count of Tuesday's election will start at noon Friday at the court house.

CHEST DRIVE $7,000 SHORT

The Gettysburg community chest still has about $7,000 to go to reach its goal of $22,000, according to reports presented at a meeting of the board of directors of the organization Tuesday evening at the fire engine house.

With approximately $15,000 collected so far in cash and pledges, the campaign is scheduled for a concentrated drive to complete the solicitation with the selection of a "flying squadron" today to visit those who have not yet been contacted.

Several hundred solicitation cards have no notation of whether or not the persons listed have been contacted, the director learned.

To aid the "flying squadron" in its work, residents who have not been contacted are asked to call the drive chairman, William G. Weaver; Chest President Glenn Guise, or any member of the board.

A complete list of members of the "flying squadron" is scheduled to be published Thursday.

U.S. STEPPING GINGERLY IN KOREAN CRISIS

Washington, Nov. 7 (AP)—The United States, stepping gingerly in the ticklish Korean situation, was reported today to favor a simple demand by the United Nations Security Council that the Chinese Communists cease their aid to North Korea.

Informed officials told a reporter this contemplated course would not include any charge of aggression and would not irreversibly link the Peking Communist regime with the dispatch of Chinese military units. Gen. Douglas MacArthur officially advised the U.N. yesterday that Chinese Red forces are now opposing his U.N. troops. The situation remained somewhat confused, however, dispatches from the front reported the Chinese were withdrawing at least on a limited scale in some sectors.

Consultations On
The State department was known to be consulting with other non-Communist governments on a proposal for U. N. action designed to avoid an immediate showdown over Chinese intervention.

This would be a continuation of past U. S. policy, which has been aimed at waging out the Communist aggression in Korea without taking any step which might involve the tremendous land armies of Communist China in the fighting. Gravelly concerned over the ex-sive possibilities of the last few days, American authorities made it plain the U. S. wants to avoid any action now which would make it difficult for the Communists to reverse or change their course.

These officials still considered it entirely possible that (1) the Chinese may limit their aid to the troops already across the border (2) MacArthur will be able to deal and even withdraw them, or that decisively with the threat before it worsens.

GOP HAS LEAD IN REGISTRATION

Philadelphia, Nov. 7 (AP)—A campaign that featured some of the toughest name calling in Pennsylvania's political history sent the state's voters to the polls today to choose a governor, U. S. Senator and 32 members of Congress.

The outcome was being watched closely with the 1952 presidential race in mind. Both Republicans and Democrats claimed victory for their candidates in this traditional GOP stronghold.

Generally fair and warm weather bore promise of a relatively heavy vote. The polls open at 7 a. m. EST, and close at 8 p. m.

Observers predicted that between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 of the state's 4,926,057 registered voters would cast their ballots.

Also to be chosen were a lieutenant governor, state secretary of internal affairs, justice of the state supreme court, judge of the superior court, 25 state senators and 208 members of the state house of representatives.

The registration figures gave the Republicans a 3-2 edge. Registered Republicans totaled 2,914,133 while the Democrats listed 1,550,873. An additional 61,049 voters registered as members of minority parties or as non-partisan.

ELECTIONS AT-A-GLANCE

(By The Associated Press)
An estimated record turnout of mid-term voters today elect 36 senators, 432 representatives and 32 state governors. Maine has already chosen a Republican governor and three GOP representatives.

The Democrats' now outnumber Republicans in the Senate 54 to 42, in the House 259 to 189 exclusive of three vacancies on each side and in the governorship 28 to 19.

A Senate majority is 49, House 218.

In the four off-year elections since the start of the new deal in 1933, Republicans have made net gains in the Senate and House in the last three. In 1934 the Democrats picked up ten Senate and nine House seats.

Estimated vote today, 42,000,000 on the basis of estimates by state election and party officials.

Estimated number of eligible voters, 70,000,000.

Estimated potential voters 98,000,000, including armed forces overseas and persons 18-20 allowed to vote in Georgia.

Polls close as early as 4 p. m. E. S. T., in parts of Rhode Island and Massachusetts, and as late as 11 p. m. E. S. T., in Washington, Oregon, and part of California.

SUICIDE LINKED TO CRIME PROBE

Philadelphia, Nov. 7 (AP)—Police Inspector Craig D. Ellis who committed suicide after being summoned to testify before a Federal grand jury investigating crime left assets of $38,000—including $8,000 from gambling—was disclosed today.

C. William Kraft, Jr., Delaware county district attorney, told a newsman that a hand-written memorandum torn in half, was found on Ellis' body following the suicide on October 17.

Originally state police said Ellis left only a suicide note that said "I have failed as a leader. My wife did not know of my laxity."

Ellis headed the Philadelphia vice squad for 10 years. He was found unconscious on a roadside near Media, in adjoining Delaware county. He died in Chester hospital.

Kraft confirmed the fact that Ellis was not penniless, when he died.

Ellis' family, following the suicide, said the police official—whose total annual salary never exceeded $5,000—left only a small insurance policy and a car and a home assessed at $4,000. But the memorandum, Kraft disclosed, listed among its items: Gambling $8,000; cash, $15,000; gift, O. P. D., $11,000.

Ellis killed himself two hours after Federal investigators asked him to appear before the grand jury. Ellis had diverted anti-gambling activity in Philadelphia for 10 years.

The police chief said the doctor gave no details of the blow, but he blamed on the Carter brothers, but described it as "blackmail of the professional nature."

A grand jury questioned Dr. La Dure on his first wife, Freda, a Swedish-born nurse, who appeared Sept. 16, 1937. He explained then that his wife left after the quarrel.

Dr. La Dure, who has practiced medicine here for 25 years, has since been given a divorce and remarried.

Both the Carters had minor police records in Terre Haute.

Salary increase, in other fields have made nursing one of the lowest paid professions in the state," said Miss Mathilda Scheuer, president of the association.

The new salaries proposed by the association call for a minimum wage of $200 per month for hospital general duty nurses; $225 for head nurses and $260 for supervisory nurses.

Harrisburg, Nov. 7 (AP)—The Pennsylvania State Nurses' Association today asked for $200 to raise nurses' wages $20 a month, effective December 15. The association also said it recommends private duty nurses receive a two-dollar-per-day increase effective December 31.

The board learned today that he was attending school in Baltimore and had transferred his registration to a board there. The action was taken too late for the local board to receive word before classifying him as delinquent Monday.

The draft board also said today it had received word that Fred Edward Myers, New Oxford, also classed as a draft delinquent when he failed to report Monday, had enlisted and his name was taken from the list.

McKELDIN WINS
IN MARYLAND

(By The Associated Press)

Republicans today appeared to be wresting control of a majority of the nation's statehouses from the Democrats.

They already had won 17 of the 33 governorships at stake in yesterday's election, and were leading in all six of the races still in doubt. The Democrats won 10 of the contests.

GOP victories in all the undecided races would put Republican governors in 26 state capitals. The lineup now is 29 Democrats and 19 Republicans.

Republicans overturned Democratic incumbents in Connecticut, Maryland and Nevada. The two Republican national standard bearers in 1948—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, and Gov. Earl Warren, of California—led the sweep of GOP gubernatorial candidates.

In Maryland, Democratic Gov. William Preston Lane, Jr., lost to Republican Theodore R. McKeldin, former mayor of Baltimore. Gov. Frank Lausche, Ohio Democrat, breathed the GOP tide to win a third term.

EDDIE SAWYER GETS MANAGER OF YEAR VOTE

By JOE REICHLER
 New York, Nov. 8 (AP)—Affable Eddie Sawyer, a former college professor who never played an inning in the big leagues, today was voted baseball's "manager of the year" in a nationwide poll conducted by the Associated Press.

The bald ever-smiling Sawyer, who led the Philadelphia Phillies to their first pennant in 35 years last season, edged out Casey Stengel of the world champion New York Yankees in a close battle.

Sawyer was named on 164 of the 381 ballots cast by sports writers and sportscasters. Stengel, who won the honor in 1949, received 134 votes to finish a close second.

Others Recognized

Four other field leaders received recognition. Red Rolfe, who did a brilliant job in bringing the Detroit Tigers home second to the Yankees in the American league race, was third with 51 votes. Leo Durocher's feat in directing the New York Giants to third place in the National league race won him fourth place with 23 votes. Steve O'Neill, who replaced Joe McCarthy in June and righted the Boston Red Sox, got five votes. Bucky Harris of the Washington Senators received four.

Sawyer, often referred to as the Phillies' "Secret Weapon," leaped into prominence practically overnight. His appointment in the middle of the 1948 season to succeed Ben Chapman as manager of the Phillies created a stir among baseball men and baseball fans everywhere. Very few persons had ever heard of him.

Builds Confidence

"Who is Sawyer?" the fans asked. Today they know. They know that the one-time Ithaca college biology teacher is a sound manager who owns the respect of every one of his players.

Players regard Sawyer as more than a mere manager. He's father confessor, friendly advisor, coach and psychologist to every Phil.

"No one gets away with anything on the skipper," one of his players once remarked. "No one wants to."

Sawyer rarely bawls out an erring player in front of his teammates.

"If a man has ability," Sawyer utters, "you get better results drawing it out of him than by trying to knock it out of him. After all, if a kid hasn't the ability, all the hollering in the world isn't going to make him a star."

"What is ability? Part of it is confidence. Build up a fellow's confidence and you build up his ability. Knock him all the time, his confidence disappears and the battle is lost."

BULLETS OPEN WORKOUTS FOR ALBRIGHT TILT

Although the Gettysburg college students were given a holiday Monday following the 7-6 football victory over Dickinson on Saturday, there was no holiday for the gridlers as drills were started for the Albright game here Saturday afternoon.

However, Coach "Hen" Bream sent his charges through only a brief workout and lumbering up program.

All of the squad members came out of the Dickinson clash in good condition with the exception of Dick Thomas, end. Thomas suffered a minor ankle injury but will be able to see full time duty this week.

Albright and the Bullets have each won three games while losing four this season. Both need triumphs in their remaining games to finish above the .500 per cent mark.

Last year Eddie Gulian's outfit pulled a big surprise in deadlocking the Bullets 13-13 at Reading. This year the Lions fully expect to triumph.

Saturday's game will bring to a close the Bullets' home season with only the Thanksgiving Day classic with undefeated Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster remaining.

GERI LEADS IN GROUND GAINING

Philadelphia, Nov. 8 (AP)—Joe Geri, whose three field goals gave the Pittsburgh Steelers a 9-7 win over the Philadelphia Eagles last Sunday, also used that opportunity to dash from sixth to first place in the National Football league's ground gaining race.

Geri, former University of Georgia star from Phenixville, Pa., picked up 115 yards against the Eagles to bring his total for the season to 461.

Cleveland's Marion Motley holds down second place with 454 yards while last week's leader, Zoltie Toth of the New York Yankees, dropped to third with 450 yards.

Norm Van Brocklin of the Los Angeles Rams retained top honors in the passing division with an average gain of 9.75 yards. George Ratterman of the Yankees held onto second place with an average of 8.85 while idle last week-end. Geri, who led the passers until two weeks ago is in third spot with an average gain of 8.06.

Another Los Angeles player, Tom Fears, tops the pass receivers with 41 accepted for 621 yards. Cleveland's Mac Speedie is second with 35 good for 458 yards and Dan Edwards, New York Yanks, is third with 31 for 494 yards.

The league top scorer is Johnny Lujack of the Chicago Bears with 81 points. He is followed by Detroit's Deak Walker with 67.

PITTSBURGHERS JUBILANT OVER BRANCH RICKEY

Pittsburgh, Nov. 8 (AP)—Two of Pittsburgh's baseball immortals joined the rank and file fans today in hailing the Pirates' shrewdness in signing up Branch Rickey as executive vice president and general manager.

The venerable Honus Wagner, famous one-time Buc shortstop and present coach, declared:

"Any man who has been as successful as Mr. Rickey has been in the past can get this team back on its feet. I think the news is wonderful. If he wants me, I'll be back there in the dugout next spring."

Pie Traynor, still remembered as a dazzling third baseman in bygone days of Pirate glory, had this to say:

Rickey's past 30 years have shown at St. Louis and Brooklyn that he has developed clubs which have stayed in the first division. People look forward to Rickey to follow up by building up the Pittsburgh club in the next couple of years."

Fans Happy Too

The average fan echoed those sentiments. Fred J. Hoffman, hotel clerk, said:

"Rickey's bound to help the Pirates. Of course, he's going to cut salaries. He always does that. But he'll definitely give Pittsburgh a good club."

Many a feminine fan—as well as male baseball addicts—muttered a comment that went something like this:

"He'd better not make bargain sale material out of our (home) run king Ralph Kiner. We won't stand for that."

Sisler Follows Rickey To Bucs

Brooklyn, Nov. 8 (AP)—George Sisler, longtime associate of Branch Rickey, is following his old boss to the Pittsburgh Baseball club, probably as a scout.

Walter O'Malley, new president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said Sisler could have remained with the Dodgers but instead he chose to follow Rickey.

Sisler, an outstanding batter and first baseman, is a member of Baseball's Hall of Fame.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 8 (AP)—Now that peace has descended over the amateur hockey world (remember that fuss about the 1948 Olympics?) Tommy Lockhard is looking for a sponsor to help carry out the rest of his big idea. . . . Tommy, a persistent as well as a talkative gent, wants to develop a few first-class hockey players right in the United States. . . . They're not coming from the "open" class teams, made up of imported players, nor from the "senior U.S." group. . . . The latter class has displayed a complete lack of professional prospects even though the champion Bates Mill team of Lewiston, Maine, is going to Europe to shoot for the world amateur title this winter. . . . Tommy's hopes lie in the "peewees," the 12-14 year old division he is plugging so hard. . . . We'll have four teams in New York this winter; nine in New Haven. They even have a father's organization there. . . . Maybe I'll bring eight teams to New York—or Atlantic City—for the championship next spring. . . . Tommy sputters. "Any time anybody wants to organize a peewee team or league, we'll help 'em." . . . That's where the need of a sponsor comes in. . . . Somebody must pay the expenses to bring the kids to that tournament and the peewees don't make money.

INCOMPLETE SLUMBER

Muhlenberg's football team devoted four hours to a drill on forward pass defense one evening last week, working until long after dark preparing for Saturday's tussle with Lehigh. . . . Next morning drummer Bill Brandt encountered Karlton Bath, a defense halfback with a singularly appropriate name, and remarked:

"You look as if you had tossed around a lot in your sleep last night." . . . Bath pried his eyelids apart and replied: "No, sir, it was Lehigh tossing. I was just trying to get there and knock the ball down."

Plans were discussed for improvements to be made in the kitchen. The kitchen committee was directed to buy its most essential need, in order to have them for use at the annual turkey supper and bazaar to be held Thursday evening, November 16. The menu for the supper was given and donations for certain items stressed.

It was proposed that the society would give its annual treat of oranges to the Adams county home in December.

The program for the evening was in the form of a stewed-jap ceremonial and was conducted by Mrs. Ted Hay, Mrs. Wayne Weagley and Mrs. Murray.

There were 32 members in attendance. Hostesses were Mrs. Ralph Barley, Mrs. Messer, Mrs. Ed Trimmer, Mrs. Nora Hankey, Miss Thelma Coulson, Mrs. John Hamilton, Mrs. Florence Grindler, Mrs. D. L. Norman and Mrs. Richard Walhag.

Secure Detainers In Local Robberies

Warrants were obtained Tuesday by borough police from Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore against John H. Barley, 23, of Hanover R. 2, and John E. Hildard, 19, also of Hanover R. 2 on charges of burglary and detainers will be forwarded to York county, Chief of Police Robert C. Harpster said today.

Harpster said both men were implicated in the burglary of two gasoline stations here. The Pinkbonyer station on York street and the Gallagher station on Buford avenue, several weeks ago. They are under arrest in York county and will be prosecuted there, Harpster said, for a series of burglaries in that county.

and a Buy!

Now it can be told. This clean-lined, smart-stepping 1950 version is the most popular Buick ever built.

Ever since early in the present year, a value-wise public has been taking them away from us as fast as—or faster than—the great Buick factories could roll them out. Within recent weeks, production and sales have set an all-time record.

Count off the distinguished and time-tried features of this winner and you'll know why.

It has a Very Exclusive Motor—Buick's own high-compression Fireball—which gets its driving power from a combustion chamber found in no other car in the world.

It has the bump-smothering softness of coil springs on all four wheels and a torque-tube drive—a comfort combination that no other car provides.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

It has Dynaflo Drive*—which ushered in a whole new concept of effortless travel.

It has a brilliant styling which sets it apart from every other car on the road.

And it has prices which say "buy me" to any motorist who's looking for maximum money's worth.

Isn't it sensible, while these great cars are still coming off the line, to check with your Buick dealer about getting one to call your own?

McKELDIN WINS IN MARYLAND

(By The Associated Press)
Republicans today appeared to be wresting control of a majority of the nation's statehouses from the Democrats.

They already had won 17 of the 33 governorships at stake in yesterday's election, and were leading in all six of the races still in doubt. The Democrats won 10 of the contests.

GOP victories in all the undecided races would put Republican governors in 26 state capitals. The lineup now is 29 Democrats and 19 Republicans.

Republicans overturned Democratic incumbents in Connecticut, Maryland and Nevada. The two Republican national standard bearers in 1948 — Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, and Gov. Earl Warren, of California — led the sweep of GOP gubernatorial candidates.

In Maryland, Democratic Gov. William Preston Lane, Jr., lost to Republican Theodore R. McKeldin, former mayor of Baltimore. Gov. Frank Lausche, Ohio Democrat, breathed the GOP tide to win a third term.

GOP HAS EDGE IN EMMITSBURG

With the vote complete in the First and Third precincts and half completed in the Second, the voters had cast 497 votes for Theodore McKeldin, Republican candidate who won the governorship in the state-wide election, and 422 votes for incumbent Democrat Governor Lane.

The Emmitsburgians voted 501 for John Butler, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, and 472 for Senator Millard Tydings, who also lost out in the state wide vote. For congressman from the sixth district, the Emmitsburgians cast 494 votes for Republican J. Glenn Beall and 372 votes for his Democratic opponent, Russell P. Hartle.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Large Crowd Views Colorful Parade: Culminating in an initiatory ceremony at the Hotel Gettysburg theatre, Friday evening, Gettys Lodge, 124, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, brought to a close the celebration of its founding eighty years ago.

The meeting at the theatre, attended by 1,100 Odd Fellows from Adams and neighboring counties, followed a large street parade in which uniformed members of Cantons in York and Harrisburg were the center of attraction in their resplendent plumed hats, and shiny swords and sheaths.

The parade was marshalled by J. E. Snyder and Curtis Kime. Musical organizations in line were the Odd Fellows Band, of Sunbury, the Gettysburg College Band and the drum corps of the Albert J. Lentz Post.

The degree team of Gettysburg lodge, of which Oscar A. Lupp is leader, was followed by between 350 and 400 members of the Gettys lodge, founded 80 years ago.

At the theatre I. L. Taylor was master of ceremonies and Rev. Earl J. Bowman gave the invocation. Addresses were given by Rev. J. Harold Mumper, Frank Shannon, Grand Master William T. Fowden, Grand Chaplain Simon Sipple, H. M. Hartman and the Rev. L. B. Hafer.

Music was furnished by a quartet of members of Gettys lodge. On the quartet were J. L. Taylor, R. E. Zinn, A. Z. Rogers and Ralph Shader.

Judge McPherson Is Returned To Office: Republican candidates carried their standard to an overwhelming victory in Tuesday's general election throughout Adams county.

Judge Donald P. McPherson, candidate for president-judge of the Adams-Fulton district of the common pleas branch, was given such a vote of confidence in Adams county that Republican and Democratic leaders admit that he will be returned to his judicial position by one of the largest votes ever given to a candidate for any office in Adams county.

Hanson W. Taylor will be a director of the poor; LeRoy Winebrenner, county surveyor; S. H. Crum and William H. Stover, jury commissioners.

The results in Gettysburg: Burgess, C. A. Heiges; Tax collector, William Ogden; school directors, Harry B. Bender, (Democrat); Mahlon P. Hartzell, (Republican).

They were married by the Rev. John N. Garner, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed church. Mr. Smith is employed in Hanover.

Local Couple Weds Wednesday: Ralph D. Streiv, who conducted a department store at New Bloomsburg, was married Wednesday noon to Miss Elsie M. Tawney, Gettysburg, in the Lutheran parsonage of Bloomsburg, by an uncle of the bride, Rev. Norman S. Wolf, D.D.

INNER ASSURANCE

There are people whom we meet who immediately cast a spell of hope and confidence over us. We may have been feeling low, tasting only bits of despair. But that person changes all. It's a good day outside. The rain has cleared. The weather's fine!

What is it that such people have? Let us call it inner assurance—hidden faith. The reading of a little book by William James had this effect upon me as I read it again, as on numerous other occasions. The name: "Is Life Worth Living?" You feel that it is after reading this inspiring little book. Here is a paragraph: "The deepest thing in our nature is this dumb yearning along the heart in which we dwell alone with our willingness and unwillingness, our faith and fears." He also says: "Be not afraid of life. Believe that life is worth living, and your belief will help you create the fact."

Fears are natural, but they can be overcome. The child fears, but the mother or father gives assurance, and the fears depart. Looking about us upon all the endless natural beauty in nature, we are enlightened as to the over-all love and care of a Superior Being—a God who gives to each of us an inner assurance of his watching eye.

The more faith we have in ourselves, in other people, and in God, the less will our fears be. In fact they will be so absent that we will wonder where they went! It is this faith that gives to us all our inner assurance. We can be better friends, better companions, and better workers with this inner assurance—living more serenely and with greater zest.

It is this inner life, with its assurance, that ennobles us all, gives to us our courage, and our pride in being. Henri Amiel has written that "the man who has no inner life is the slave of his surroundings." It is here that all the major decisions of life have their inception. Within ourselves alone are won, or lost, the crucial battles of life. Without this inner assurance we would be mere flounders.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Books Are Medicine"

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

FOOTBALL FAN

He sat on the side for the visiting team

For his old Alma Mater to shout and to scream.

When a touchdown was scored he went mad with delight.

"That's showing those bums they are in for a fight!"

He shouted by forcing his voice to the top

Then drank from a bottle of something, not pop.

When our boys were gaining for murder he'd beg.

His mildest suggestion was this: "Break his leg!"

For imposing the penalties down on the books

He called all the referees "robbers and crooks!"

So vicious he seemed that I thought: Can it be

He's a gentleman owning a college degree?

I chuckled to hear him. Defeat was his share.

His college was humbled, and that's hard to bear.

No voice had he left when the last whistle blew.

No longer a murder he pleaded to view.

He left us a mild-looking college bred man.

But that is what football will do to a fan.

Bullets Down Dickinson: On a wet and sloppy field, in a heavy rain interspersed with driving downpours, the Wood-coached Orange and Blue Gettysburg college aggregation tumbled the strong Red and White Dickinson tribe to the tune of 6 to 0, in the closing minutes of a bitterly fought battle Saturday afternoon at Island Park, Harrisburg.

Then came the closing minutes with two new substitutions for the Bullets, Fisher and Wells, and the tide of battle turned from a scoreless tie to a 6 point victory margin for the Bullets. Fisher heaved a pass to young "Dickie" Wells and the fleet-footed Philadelphia raced 22 yards to a touchdown and a Gettysburg victory.

News Of Interest To Home Builders---

A simple, rectangular house with Colonial lines, "The Binghamton," today's design from the Home of the Week Plan Service meets the requirements of the home-seeker who wants a 1-story dwelling with three bedrooms.

Measuring 31x37 feet at the foundation this home can be built on a lot with a frontage of only 50 feet. The house contains 19,000 cubic feet of space. It has a simple A-style roof, the least expensive type to build, and it is built close to the ground, making it easy for the owner to do his own painting and repair work.

Has Attic For Storage
The outside walls may be either painted clapboards or shingles and for contrast, the architects recommend the use of stucco finish on the gable ends. The wide expanse of the front gable, over the projecting entry, is relieved by a simple bull's-eye window. In the rear gable, louvers are provided for ventilation of the attic, which in this house is useful only for storage.

A pleasing feature of the dwelling is the treatment of the entry ell. Inside, the ell is large enough to accommodate an entry hall with coat closets at either side. An open arch or a door, separates the entry hall and the adjoining living room. Use of a door here will keep out drafts in winter, architects point out.

The living room measures 18-12 feet. The fire place, in the far end of the room, is built with a flush mantel so the full floor space of the room may be utilized. Across the room from the entry arch or door is door opening on a L-shaped back hall connecting with the bedrooms, bath, cellar stairs and ending at a door to the kitchen. A large storage closet and a linen closet open off this hall.

Double Window In Dining Room
Living room and the 11x11-foot dining room are connected by a wide archway. A double window on the side of the house lights the dining room. Opposite, in the inside wall of the room, is a built-in wall china cabinet. A swinging door opens from the dining room to the kitchen.

The latter measures 12'x11 feet and its layout will appeal to most housewives. It includes a broom closet, a wall cabinet with working counter near the door to the dining room; a long L-shaped working counter with sink; the stove abutting the main work counter; and an open floor area between the counter and refrigerator, under a window, left open to accommodate a breakfast set. A service entry, with a glazed door giving additional light, is located in the corner of the room near the refrigerator.

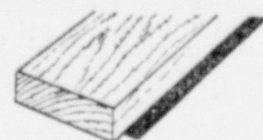

Just inside the door from kitchen to hall is the cellar stairway. In the basement the heating system is placed under the living room and laundry equipment below either the bathroom or kitchen. This leaves much of the basement open for other uses.

Bedrooms On Right Side
The bedrooms, lined along the right side of the house, range in size from 12'x11 feet to 11'x10'6 feet.

The two outside corner rooms have windows on two exposures; the middle room has two windows in its one outside wall. The unusual shape of this room suggests the use of built in bunks along one or both walls. Single closets are provided in two of the bedrooms. The front room has two.

Access to the attic storage space can be provided by installation of a ceiling trap, with disappearing stair-

GOP SURGE IN NATION SOUNDS OPPOSITION TO TRUMAN PLANS

(By The Associated Press)

A Republican vote surge toppled President Truman's Senate leadership but seemed today to have fallen short of winning control of either branch of Congress.

The cross-country tide that pushed further in the background the President's "Fair Deal" program and raised questions about his foreign policies brought sharp Republican gains in the Senate and increased GOP strength in the House.

Final results in undecided races possibly could bring a Senate tie, with 48 members from each party. Vice President Barkley's vote would preserve control for the Democrats in such a case.

The Republicans, who had picked up five seats, still had a mathematical chance to take over the Senate if they won in such states as Nevada and Washington, where their candidates were trailing.

The GOP needed a net gain of seven to win Senate control.

With 84 House races still undecided, Republicans had gained eleven seats net. The GOP needed to unseat 46 Democrats and keep their present membership for House control in the 82nd Congress.

The adverse turn of the Korean war, opposition to the President's domestic program, criticism of his foreign policy decisions and reaction to Communist-in-government charges were variously credited with bringing the Republican victories.

Republicans won smashing individual victories in a sweep that knocked Senators Scott W. Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, and Francis J. Myers of Pennsylvania, his assistant, out of office.

The same surge carried Senators Millard E. Tydings of Maryland and Elbert Thomas of Utah down to defeat.

All four senators were staunch defenders of President Truman. Their defeats prompted Harold E. Stassen, a potential 1952 Republican Presidential candidate, to suggest that Secretary of State Acheson had received a "vote of no confidence" and ought to resign.

The fifth Democratic seat to go to the Republicans was that previously held in Idaho by Senator Glen Taylor, defeated in the primary by former Senator D. Worth Clark.

The voting trend that bowed over veteran Democrats returned to office Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, often called "Mr. Republican," and his GOP leadership colleague, Senator Eugene Millikin of Colorado. Taft heads the party's Senate policy committee and Millikin is chairman of the conference of all GOP senators.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York rode the tide into a third term. Other New York results followed forecasts with Senator Herbert H. Lehman (D-Lib.) winning re-election and Vincent Impellitteri, an independent, beating his Democratic and Republican opponents for mayor of New York City.

Republican candidates upset Democratic Governors Chester Bowles of Connecticut, a "Fair Deal" supporter, and William Preston Lane, Jr., of Maryland. Republicans also were leading incumbent Democratic Governors in Colorado, Michigan and New Mexico.

Guy C. Gabrielson, the Republican National chairman, hailed the GOP victories as a sign that the voters are "opposed to appeasement of communism—whether at home or abroad" and are "opposed to socialism in free America."

William M. Boyle, Jr., the Democratic National chairman, confined his comments to predictions that his party would retain a majority in the Senate and definitely would control the new House.

Capehart Re-elected

Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas, praised recently by President Truman for her support of his foreign policies, was trailing her Republican opponent, Rep. Richard M. Nixon, in the California Senate race.

Nixon is a member of the House Committee of Un-American Activities and a critic of alleged Communist infiltration into government.

Senator Homer E. Capehart, Indiana Republican, who had criticized severely the administration's handling of international issues and the President's "Fair Deal" program, won in Indiana.

Senator Henry C. Dworshak, another Republican critic of the administration on foreign questions, also won his race for election in Idaho. Senator Elbert D. Thomas, a Democratic supporter of Mr. Truman's foreign policies, lost in Utah to Republican Wallace F. Bennett, a former president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Marcantonio Beaten

On the other hand, Senator Brian McMahon and William Benton, Connecticut Democrats who have gone down the line with Mr. Truman's policies in international affairs, won re-election in Connecticut.

The re-election of Taft in Ohio and of Millikin in Colorado, as well as the defeat of Democratic Governor Bowles in Connecticut, gave signs that voters in widely separated areas were cold to President Truman's "Fair Deal" program.

Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper, Iowa Republican, won his race for re-election over Democrat Albert L. Loveland, former undersecretary of Agriculture.

In New York's 18th Congressional district Rep. Vito Marcantonio, American-Labor party, went down to defeat at the hands of a Democratic-Liberal Republican coalition candidate, James G. Donovan, a Democrat.

Marcantonio had been accused by his critics with following the Communist party line.

Democratic Governor since the Civil war.

For a time last night it appeared that the Democrats might win. Myers and Dilworth built up leads in industrial Philadelphia and Pittsburgh that put them ahead until more than one-half of the votes were counted.

Then, as the results from the rural upstate regions began filtering in, the trend changed suddenly and the lead of the Republican candidates began mounting.

Harvey M. Taylor, Republican state chairman, put it this way: "It was a glorious victory. We sog busters had to save the day."

Maurice J. Splain, Jr., Democratic state chairman, said the closeness of the vote demonstrates that "Senator Myers, Richardson Dilworth and the other Democratic candidates are held in high regard by the people of Pennsylvania."

Myers conceded defeat at 3:20 a.m. EST. Dilworth had not conceded at 5:30.

Myers sent Duff a telegram stating: "Heartiest congratulations on your victory."

Congratulates Duff

In a statement, Myers said "The majority of the people of Pennsylvania have decided that my oppoent should represent them in the U. S. Senate for the next six years. x x x At this time of grave crisis for the free peoples of the world, I extend to him my sincere best wishes and bespeak for him the support of all Pennsylvanians in his efforts to solve the many and complex problems he will face as a member of the United States Senate."

Myers and Dilworth left their midtown Philadelphia headquarters before three-fourths of the vote had been tabulated.

Dilworth, declaring "wait 'til next year," took his wife by the arm and led her down eight flights of stairs. The elevators were jammed.

Women Embrace Duff

Pine hinted that the results were closer than he had expected. Asked for comment on the bitterness of the campaign, Pine said:

"I'm inclined to be a little generous at the moment, if you know what I mean."

He said he plans to stay home for two days, then attend a meeting of Pennsylvania Republican women at Harrisburg and go to Florida for a month's vacation.

Duff's plans were uncertain. He said he would "take two baths today and go horseback riding before catching up on some sleep."

He appeared haggard and weary but in good spirits at his headquarters. At least a dozen women rushed up to him to embrace him.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Large Crowd Views Colorful Parade: Culminating in an initiatory ceremony at the Hotel Gettysburg theatre, Friday evening, Gettys Lodge, 124, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, brought to a close the celebration of its founding eighty years ago.

The meeting at the theatre, attended by 1,100 Odd Fellows from Adams and neighboring counties, followed a large street parade in which uniformed members of Cantons in York and Harrisburg were the center of attraction in their resplendent plumed hats, and shiny swords and sheaths.

The parade was marshalled by J. E. Snyder and Curtis Kime. Musical organizations in line were the Odd Fellows Band, of Sunbury, the Gettysburg College Band and the drum corps of the Albert J. Lentz Post.

The degree team of Gettysburg lodge, of which Oscar A. Lupp is leader, was followed by between 350 and 400 members of the Gettys lodge, founded 80 years ago.

At the theater I. L. Taylor was master of ceremonies and Rev. Earl J. Bowman gave the invocation. Addresses were given by Rev. J. Harold Mumper, Frank Shannon, Grand Master William T. Fowden, Grand Chaplain Simon Sipple, H. M. Hartman and the Rev. L. B. Hafer.

Music was furnished by a quartet of members of Gettys lodge. On the quartet were J. L. Taylor, R. E. Zinn, A. Z. Rogers and Ralph Shadler.

Judge McPherson Is Returned To Office: Republican candidates carried their standard to an overwhelming victory in Tuesday's general election throughout Adams county.

Judge Donald P. McPherson, candidate for president-judge of the Adams-Fulton district of the common pleas branch, was given such a vote of confidence in Adams county that Republican and Democratic leaders admit that he will be returned to his judicial position by one of the largest votes ever given to a candidate for any office in Adams county.

Hanson W. Taylor will be a director of the poor; LeRoy Winebrenner, county surveyor; S. H. Crum and William H. Stover, jury commissioners.

The results in Gettysburg: Burgess, C. A. Helges; Tax collector, William Ogden; school directors, Harry B. Bender, (Democrat); Mahlon P. Hartzell, (Republican).

Local Girl Weds At Westminster: A pretty wedding was solemnized at noon Monday at Westminster, Md., when Miss Pauline E. McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McClellan, of Gettysburg R. 1, became the wife of Burdette P. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fabian Smith, McSherrytown.

They were married by the Rev. John N. Garner, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed church. Mr. Smith is employed in Hanover.

Local Couple Weds Wednesday: Ralph D. Strevie, who conducted a department store at New Bloomsburg, was married Wednesday noon to Miss Elsie M. Tawney, Gettysburg, in the Lutheran parsonage of Bloomsburg, by an uncle of the bride, Rev. Norman S. Wolf, D.D.

The bridal couple entered the parsonage to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march as played by Mrs. Carrie M. Pretz.

Those present at the wedding included Mrs. Julia Tawney, David Tawney, Mrs. Carrie M. Pretz, Mary Pretz, Miss Ivy P. Tawney, Rev. and Mrs. Norman S. Wolf and sons, Louis and Richard.

College Plans Father-Son Day: Three hundred and fifty reservations for the banquet to be given in connection with the Father and Son Day program at Gettysburg college, November 21, have been made at local hotels. Owing to the fact that the persons attending the function will greatly outnumber those of last year, the banquet will be held jointly at the Hotel Gettysburg and the Eagle Hotel. INNER ASSURANCE

There are people whom we meet who immediately cast a spell of hope and confidence over us. We may have been feeling low, tasting only bits of despair. But that person changes all. It's a good day outside. The rain has cleared. The weather's fine!

What is it that such people have? Let us call it inner assurance—hidden faith. The reading of a little book by William James had this effect upon me as I read it again, as on numerous other occasions. The name: "Is Life Worth Living?" You feel that it is after reading this inspiring little book. Here is a paragraph: "The deepest thing in our nature is this dumb region of the heart in which we dwell alone with our willingness and unwillingness, our faith and fears." He also says: "Be not afraid of life. Believe that life is worth living, and your belief will help you create the fact."

Fears are natural, but they can be overcome. The child fears, but the mother or father gives assurance, and the fears depart. Looking about us upon all the endless natural beauty in nature, we are enlightened as to the over-all love and care of a Superior Being—a God who gives to each of us an inner assurance of his watching eye.

The more faith we have in ourselves, in other people, and in God, the less will our fears be. In fact they will be so absent that we will wonder where they went! It is this faith that gives to us all our inner assurance. We can be better friends, better companions, and better workers with this inner assurance—living more serenely and with greater zest.

It is this inner life, with its assurance, that ennobles us all, gives to us our courage, and our pride in being. Henri Amiel has written that "the man who has no inner life is the slave of his surroundings." It is here that all the major decisions of our life have their inception. Within ourselves alone are won, or lost, the crucial battles of life. Without this inner assurance we would be mere flounders.

By EDGAR A. GUEST

FOOTBALL FAN

He sat on the side for the visiting team
For his old Alma Mater to shout and to scream.
When a touchdown was scored he went mad with delight.
"That's showing those bums they are in for a fight!"
He shouted by forcing his voice to the top
Then drank from a bottle of something, not pop.

When our boys were gaining for murder he'd beg.
His mildest suggestion was this: "Break his leg!"
For imposing the penalties down on the books
He called all the referees "robbers and crooks!"
So vicious he seemed that I thought: Can it be
He's a gentleman owning a college degree?

I chuckled to hear him. Defeat was his share.
His college was humbled, and that's hard to bear.
No voice had he left when the last whistle blew.
No longer a murder he pleaded to view.

He left us a mild-looking college bred man,
But that is what football will do to a fan.

Bullets Down Dickinson: On a wet and sloppy field, in a heavy rain interspersed with driving downpours, the Wood-enched Orange and Blue Gettysburg college aggregation humbled the strong Red and White Dickinson tribe to the tune of 6 to 0, in the closing minutes of a bitterly fought battle Saturday afternoon at Island Park, Harrisburg.

Then came the closing minutes with two new substitutions for the Bullets, Fisher and Wells, and the tide of battle turned from a scoreless tie to a 6 point victory margin for the Bullets. Fisher heaved a pass to young "Dickie" Wells and the fleet-footed Philadelphiaian raced 22 yards to a touchdown and a Gettysburg victory.

News Of Interest To Home Builders---

A simple, rectangular house with Colonial lines, "The Binghamton," today's design from the Home of the Week Plan Service meets the requirements of the home-seeker who wants a 1-story dwelling with three bedrooms.

Measuring 31x37 feet at the foundation this home can be built on a lot with a frontage of only 50 feet. The house contains 19,000 cubic feet of space. It has a simple A-style roof, the least expensive type to build, and it is built close to the ground, making it easy for the owner to do his own painting and repair work.

Has Attic For Storage
The outside walls may be either painted clapboards or shingles and for contrast, the architects recommend the use of stucco finish on the gable ends. The wide expanse of the front gable, over the projecting entry, is relieved by a simple bullseye window. In the rear gable, louvers are provided for ventilation of the attic, which in this house is useful only for storage.

A pleasing feature of the dwelling is the treatment of the entry. Inside, the ell is large enough to accommodate an entry hall with coat closets at either side. An open arch or a door, separates the entry hall and the adjoining living room. Use of a door here will keep out drafts in winter, architects point out.

The living room measures 18-12 feet. The fire place, in the far end of the room, is built with a flush mantel so the full floor space of the room may be utilized. Across the room from the entry arch or door is door opening on a L-shaped back hall connecting with the bedrooms, bath, cellar stairs and ending at a door to the kitchen. A large storage closet and a linen closet open off this hall.

Double Window In Dining Room
Living room and the 11x11-foot dining room are connected by a wide archway. A double window on the side of the house lights the dining room. Opposite, in the inside wall of the room is a built-in wall china cabinet. A swinging door opens from the dining room to the kitchen.

The latter measures 12'x11 feet and its layout will appeal to most housewives. It includes a broom closet, a wall cabinet with working counter near the door to the dining room; a long L-shaped working counter with sink; the stove abutting the main work counter; and an open floor area between the counter and refrigerator, under a window, left open to accommodate a breakfast set. A service entry, with a glazed door giving additional light, is located in the corner of the room near the refrigerator.

Just inside the door from kitchen to hall is the cellar stairway. In the basement the heating system is placed under the living room and laundry equipment below either the bathroom or kitchen. This leaves much of the basement open for other uses.

Bedrooms On Right Side
The bedrooms, lined along the right side of the house, range in size from 12'x11 feet to 11'x10'1/2 feet.

Access to the attic storage space can be provided by installation of a ceiling trap, with disappearing stair-

REPUBLICANS
KEEP CONTROL
IN HARRISBURG

Harrisburg, Nov. 8 (P)—Pennsylvania Republicans retained a decisive grip on the General Assembly today although the Democrats managed to capture five more seats in the Senate.

The Democratic inroad in the Senate, however, can prove troublesome to Governor-elect John S. Fine since the Republicans now have only 30 votes in the Senate and 34 are needed to confirm appointments by the governor.

The five-seat loss by the Republicans reduced the GOP majority in the upper chamber from the previous 35-15 to 30-20. Only 26 votes are necessary however to pass a bill in the 50-seat Senate so Republicans will still have strength to pass legislation.

Floor Leaders Win
The Republicans took over 16 of the 26 seats up for election in the 50-seat Senate yesterday, with the Democrats taking the remaining 10. Four Republican incumbents fell by the wayside in the Democratic upsurge.

In the House, with only a few counties yet unreported, Republicans held a 113 to 82 lead over the Democrats. A minimum of 103 votes are necessary to pass a bill in the 208-seat lower chamber. Republicans controlled the House in the 1949 Legislature by a 117 to 91 margin. All 208 House seats were at stake in yesterday's election.

Floor leaders of both parties won their fights for re-election, although State Sen. John M. Walker, majority floor leader, had a narrow squeak in Allegheny county. He barely nosed out his Democratic opponent, Attorney Frank Zappala, a former Pittsburgh police magistrate.

Rep. Herbert P. Sorg, of Elk county, Republican speaker of the House was re-elected as was Rep. Hiram G. Andrews of Cambria county, House minority floor leader.

Dent, Taylor Holdovers
State Sen. John H. Dent, of Westmoreland county, minority floor leader in the Senate, was a hold-over and did not figure in the election, nor did president pro tempore Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Dauphin Republican.

All but one of the four incumbent senators defeated for re-election was from Philadelphia. The exception was in Allegheny county where County Democratic Chairman Bernard B. McGinnis defeated Theodore H. Doehla.

Lancaster voters picked Republican Edward J. Kessler for the unexpired term of two years of the late Sen. Frederick L. Homsher, Republican.

HARTZELL'S ESSO. STATION

It helps prevent stalling ... those irritating start-up, parking, and traffic-light stalls so common on damp, chilly days.

It's especially good in cars with AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSIONS where restarting after stalling is more troublesome.

It's a big Fall Extra for your money in Esso Extra—the high-test gasoline long famous for quick starting, fast warm-up, high anti-knock power and long mileage! And Esso Extra is the ONLY premium gasoline with patented Esso Solvent Oil that fights harmful engine deposits.

DON'T STALL ANOTHER DAY ... TRY A TANKFUL RIGHT AWAY!
And when you're in, there's no better time to let your Esso Dealer give your car a complete check-up for the winter driving you'll be doing!

Esso

ESSO STANDARD OIL COMPANY

Don't let this happen to you!

Stalling that occurs on cool, humid days (30° to 55° temperatures, humidity above 65%) is generally caused by carburetor "icing." Evaporation of the highly volatile gasolines required for modern cars has a refrigerating effect which freezes moisture out of the air, accumulating icy frost in the carburetor. Anti-Stalling Esso Extra Gasoline helps eliminate this cause of stalling, which is experienced with most cars today. It will not prevent stalling caused by faulty carburetor adjustment or electrical failure.

RADIO

New York, Nov. 8 (AP)—The only thing possibly wrong with radio's latest offering, the Big Show of Comedy and Variety, was that it didn't go on television, too.

It had all the elements of a visual program despite the fact it is to be exclusively radio. It is being put on by NBC to bolster the Sunday evening schedule and to help counter the competition developed by Jack Benny and others when they transferred to CBS.

On the air tonight (Wednesday): NBC—8 Halls of Ivy; 8:30 Great Gildersleeve; 9 Groucho Marx; 9:30 District Attorney; 10:30 Dick Powell Mystery.

CBS—8 Mr. Chameleon; 9 Harold Peary Show; 9:30 Bing Crosby and Dick Powell.

ABC—7:30 Lone Ranger; 8:30 American Agent; 9 Detour Drama; 10 Lawrence Welk Show.

MBS—8 Hidden Truth; 8:30 Air-Port program; 9:30 Family Theater. Radio and television: CBS and CBS-TV—10 Boxing at Chicago, Ray Robinson vs. Bobby Dykes.

RED CROSS TO

club, Friday Literary club and Study club each two boxes and the Beta Sigma Phi and Scuttlbutt club one box each.

The gift packages are to be uniform in size and of the same intrinsic value, $2.50, and each package contains six items selected from a suggested list.

Christmas Wrappings
The Red Cross said that each package is to be attractively wrapped with Christmas gift wrapping and a greeting card is to be enclosed. Staff aides of the Red Cross, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leroy Winebrenner, will assemble, wrap and pack the gift boxes which must be shipped not later than November 15.

Among the articles to be placed in the packages are a new deck of cards, pocket-sized books, nail file and clippers, stationery, cigarettes, razor blades, and hard candy in cellophane or tin box.

Any organization which would wish to contribute boxes is asked to contact the Red Cross office.

19 years have been added to the individual's life expectancy.

Maternal and infant mortality rates have decreased, with death rates for mothers in the United States the lowest of any nation in the world. Mrs. Hamman said; deaths from pneumonia, influenza and tuberculosis were lowered 20 per cent and typhoid fever, diphtheria and smallpox practically eliminated, she added.

Outlines Responsibilities
Mrs. Hamman outlined the responsibilities of auxiliary members in serving their doctor husbands and protecting American health. She spoke of the threat of government medicine, and pointed out: "Our traditional form of American liberty consists of each citizen handling his own business on the basis of personal responsibility and individual initiative."

"It would be well for us to re-dedicate ourselves to the principles and ideals on which our nation was founded," she continued. "Definite protection, and not intrusion on the security that responsible people are able to attain individually or through voluntary cooperation with others, should be one of the major purposes of our government."

Area Officers
Officers of the Adams county auxiliary include Mrs. Raymond F. Sheely, Gettysburg, president; Mrs. Leon Roos, East Berlin, president-elect; Mrs. Leonard Potter, Littlestown, recording secretary; Mrs. Harrison F. Harbach, Gettysburg, treasurer, and Mrs. David Stoner, Gettysburg, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Ray Gabler, Chambersburg, is president of the Franklin county auxiliary; Mrs. Wallace Hopkins, Dallastown, president of the York county auxiliary; Mrs. Frank Corbett, Fayetteville, district councilor. An additional guest this noon was Mrs. Daniel H. Bee, of Indiana, Pa.
